

Parent Engagement Matters!

The PAiR—Parents Are Important in Rochester and School Readiness programs have an advisory council made up of PAiR and School Readiness participants, community professionals and staff.

Functions of an Advisory Council

Contribute recommendations for program policies, goals, objectives, and ideas.

Develop a source of volunteers and helps train them.

Promote the program, outreach, and community relations.

Assist in program evaluations.

Serve as an advocate for Early Childhood Family Education programs in the community and Legislature.

Expand resource development.

Interested in contributing to our Advisory Council?

The PAiR/School Readiness Advisory Council meets one Wednesday evening per month during the school year, September—May.
